

If you could have a video of your mother or father telling a story, what would it be about?

What would you want asked?

—

We believe no resident's story should go untold.

Our mobile app helps us capture their stories on video, and send them to you to cherish for generations, just for being part of our community!

Ask a team member how your loved one can get started telling their story on video, free of charge.